

READING VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

One hour a week can make a BIG difference in a child's life!

Three Montgomery County non-profits, the George B. Thomas Learning Academy, Interages, and Passion for Learning, are seeking volunteer tutors for the "Ruth Rales-Comcast Kids Reading Network Program." This one-on-one tutorial program, at 56 Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS), provides extra reading support to struggling second graders. The weekly tutoring session may take place before, during, or after school. Volunteers may select their top choices of school locations. Training and ongoing support, plus tutoring materials and books will be provided

For more information and to find out how to volunteer, please contact:

Peggy Graham, MCPS Program Coordinator, at 301-279-3890 or www.montgomeryschoolsmd.org/readingnetwork. You can make a BIG difference!